

Workshops

Day 1 — Tuesday 28 July 2009

Fact finding and inquiry

Full Day: 9 am – 5 pm

This is an interactive workshop for public sector managers, supervisors and those who may conduct internal inquiries into allegations of misconduct.

Workshop presenters:

- Jay Lawrence, Senior Lawyer, ICAC
- Steve Osbourne, Chief Investigator (Operations Adviser), ICAC

Room: Concorde

Managing protected and other disclosures

Full Day: 9 am – 5 pm

Reporting public interest wrongdoing, or 'whistleblowing', is vital to the integrity of public sector organisations; this workshop is recommended for those responsible for coordinating the management of protected or public interest disclosure.

Workshop presenters:

- Professor A J Brown, Senior Lecturer, Griffith Law School, Griffith University
- Jane Olsen, Research Officer, CMC
- Donna Oxley, Principal Consultant, Corruption Prevention, Education and Research, CCC

Room: Bastille

Corruption prevention for managers

Full Day: 9 am – 5 pm

This workshop is designed to help public sector managers identify the risks of corruption / misconduct and to develop appropriate proactive strategies to manage the risks to integrity in the workplace.

Workshop presenters:

- John Boyd, Principal Project Officer (Prevention), CMC
- Tina Davies, Senior Consultant, Corruption Prevention, Education and Research, CCC
- Margaret Ludlow, Senior Project Officer, Training and Development, ICAC

Room: Ballroom 1

Conflict of interest for managers

Full Day: 9 am – 5 pm

This workshop is designed to help public sector managers and supervisors at all levels to understand organisational requirements and the responsibilities of the individual in managing conflict of interest.

Workshop presenters:

- Narelle George, Adviser, Misconduct Prevention
- Sally Farnham, Senior Consultant, Corruption Prevention, Education and Research, CCC
- Lewis Rangott, Senior Corruption Prevention Officer, ICAC

Room: St Germain

Day 2 — Friday 31 July 2009

Good public administration

Full Day: 9 am – 5 pm

This workshop has been jointly developed by the Ombudsman Offices of Qld, NSW and WA, for public sector decision-makers at all levels.

Workshop presenters:

- Peter Cantwell, Assistant Ombudsman, Administrative Improvement Unit, Office of the Qld Ombudsman
- Sarah Cowie, Director, Research and Projects, Ombudsman WA
- Chris Wheeler, Deputy Ombudsman, NSW Ombudsman

Room: Concorde

Fraud and corruption control

Full Day: 9 am – 5 pm

This workshop is designed to improve the capacity of participants to respond to the risk of fraud and corruption.

Workshop presenters:

- Ray Bange, Principal, Probity Consultants International
- Bradley Morgan, Manager, Professional Standards, Australian Crime Commission

Room: Bastille

Embedding ethics

Half Day: 9 am – 12.30 pm

This workshop is designed for public officials, who have an interest in, or the responsibility for, ensuring the effective take-up of ethical practice within their organisation.

Workshop presenters:

- Narelle George, Adviser, Misconduct Prevention, CMC
- Kelly-Ann Reardon, Education and Training Adviser, CMC
- Alan Barrett, Principal Policy Officer, Accountability Support Unit, Public Sector Commission WA

Room: Ballroom 1

Misconduct resistance in the public health sector

Half Day: 9 am – 12.30 pm

This workshop is for middle and senior administrators in public health services including central agencies, regional administration and health delivery services such as hospitals.

Workshop presenters:

- Alex Mills, Principal Officer, Public Sector, Corruption Prevention, Education and Research, ICAC
- Vicki Klum, Senior Corruption Prevention Officer, Public Sector, Corruption Prevention, Education and Research, ICAC

Room: St Germain

Beyond the code of conduct: the fundamentals of managing 'people risk'

Half Day: 1.30 pm – 5 pm

This workshop builds on participants' own professional experience to show how these skills can be learned, assessed and managed.

Workshop presenter:

- Howard Whitton, Consultant, Ethicos Group

Room: Ballroom 1

Managing the impact of an investigation

Half Day: 1.30 pm – 5 pm

This workshop will equip senior public officers and managers to more effectively manage internal and external communications during a significant investigation into their agency.

Workshop presenters:

- Yvonne Miles, Manager, Education and Training, ICAC
- Roger Watson, Director (Designate), Corruption, Prevention, Education and Research, CCC

Room: St Germain